SPRING 2009 PLEDGE CLASS

The new semester rolled in with eight new pledges being inducted into the Psi Delta Chapter in late January. The eight young gentlemen consist of five engineering majors, two business majors, and one undeclared major. This group of men is one of the largest spring classes the Charlotte chapter has seen in a while. Under the wing of their Pledge Beta, Brother Jeff Payne, they will learn a variety of information throughout the semester. Brother Payne plans to have them work on several projects around the Fraternity House, travel to a near-by chapter, and learn all facts about the history of our national headquarters, as well as our prestigious chapter. Be ready, there is more to come from this spring class.

WACHOVIA LIVES?

Alumnus, Brother Arnold Rosales, stopped in late January to give the active brothers of Charlotte some financial advice. After a 15-minute PowerPoint presentation on how to "Not Mess Up Your Life (Financially Speaking)", the brothers learned how to stay out of debt, watch over their fico score, not overdraft, and sustain a reasonable balance in their savings account. Our actives were fortunate to have Brother Rosales come in to share his knowledge with the chapter.

COMMUNITY SERVICE EVENTS

The Psi Delta Chapter has been giving back to the community in a mixture of ways for the last month. WE FINALLY

HAVE A SIGN FOR OUR ADOPTED STREAM - TOBY CREEK!!! (Near Target Shopping Center) Earlier in the month of February, twenty-two brothers and three pledges attended the tri-semester clean up of Toby Creek. During this Sunday morning activity, members filled nine fifty-gallon trash bags, and discovered two tires that were lying in the creek bed. This was a terrific effort from all of Psi Delta's members.

PSI DELTA WEBSITE UP AND RUNNING

Rumor has it that the Psi Delta Chapter of the Chi Phi Fraternity has its own website! Managed by Brother Brian Rosenfeld, the new website consists of the history of the Chi Phi Fraternity, a calendar of events throughout the year, upcoming brotherhood events, community service events, a list of all active brothers with information about each one, and pictures from previous events. An alumni page will be coming soon, stay posted for more information. To view Psi Delta's website, connect to www.chiphicharlotte.com

SOCIALS

Now what is the best part of each semester? Hanging out, playing sports, and of course mixers with the sorority girls. This semester is going to be packed with different events. As the Social Chair for the 2009 calendar year, Brother Colin O'Brien has sweet-talked four out of the five sororities to have a function during the Spring Semester. Our first function of the new year went off with a blast.

The brother's of Chi Phi invited the ladies of Delta Zeta to a mixer at Ham's Restaurant. The dance floor was marked off, the music was set, and drink specials were out of control. Themed "Cowboys and Indians", the two organizations came out with costumes of every shape, size, and style. Next two sororities to be mixed with will be Chi Omega and Alpha Delta Pi in late February.

INTRAMURALS

The intramurals program is up and running for the spring semester. The Psi Delta's Intramural Chair, and a member of the Track and Field team at UNC-Charlotte, Brother Travis Brotherton has been scheduling events every week. Currently, Chi Phi is behind PIKE in the standings of All Campus Points, but it is anyone's game at this point.

RENOVATIONS

The renovations on Psi Delta's House are almost complete! The finishing touches are being made throughout the property to give our fraternity an upper hand here at Charlotte. The actives would like to thank all Psi Delta Alumni that contributed to the renovations with their finances, time, and knowledge.

UPCOMING EVENTS

There will be an assortment of events coming up in the next few weeks of February. The University of North Carolina at Charlotte will be playing Xavier on Thursday, February 19th at 7pm. This game will be broadcasted over ESPN so don't miss it! The actives will be cheering on the 49ers with our letters front row behind the basketball goals. Also, two lucky sororities will be mixing with us at an undisclosed location. We actives know how you alumni are. Those two sororities include Alpha Delta Pi and Chi Omega. Finally, on February 28th, Order of Omega will be hosting the annual Greek Leadership Conference at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte. Twenty-five lucky brothers will attend from 9am till 3pm learning how to become a better leader in the community and surrounding areas.
